Beautifully updated home in the highly sought-after Baileys Arbor community, featuring a private backyard oasis lined with mature trees that offer exceptional privacy. The level backyard is newly landscaped and includes a deck with new floor boards in (2025) perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Inside this stunning two-story home, you'll find rich hickory wood floors, cherry cabinetry, and a thoughtfully designed floor plan. A private main-level office is tucked at the back of the home, ideal for quiet work or study. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the great room and showcases granite countertops, newer stainless-steel appliances, double ovens, tile backsplash, and a walk-in pantry. The great room features a new fireplace with stone surround, while transom windows throughout the main level bring in beautiful natural light. Additional upgrades include a new front door, new garage doors, Andersen windows, and three-panel cherry doors throughout the home. The upper level offers a spacious loft, perfect for a secondary living or TV space, along with four bedrooms featuring custom closet systems. The vaulted primary suite includes a spa-like bathroom with jetted tub, newer carpet, Hunter Douglas shades, and custom shutters. Both upper bathrooms are new. One in late (2025) the other (2026). One upper bathroom close shower surrounds. The lookout lower level provides a large, open entertaining space with a half bathroom
